A HISTORY OF EMPOWERING COMMUNITIES

For over 110 years, Tacoma Community House (TCH) has helped immigrants, refugees, and predominantly low-income South Sound residents move from crisis and vulnerability to stability and self-sufficiency through four core programs: Immigration, Education, Employment, and Advocacy (for victims of crime).

Founded by Methodist women in a private home on the Hilltop in 1910, TCH has earned many “firsts” in the City of Tacoma, including:

- opening the first baby clinic
- offering the first organized kindergarten classes
- hiring the first African American teacher
- creating the first racially-integrated Boy and Girl Scout troops

The South Sound represents a growing population of 1.7 million individuals, 11% of whom are immigrants.

We are the only nonprofit organization between Seattle and Portland that provides such comprehensive, self-sufficiency-driven services to immigrant communities.
